WEB ALERT

Focus of the Week : Transnational Crimes

U.S. Ambassador B. Lynn Pascoe and Indonesian Attorney General Abdul Rahman Saleh, on September 12 signed a Letter of Arrangement (LOA) concerning support for Indonesia's effort to prosecute transnational crimes. Ambassador Pascoe stated that "criminals do not respect national boundaries, and complex crimes are increasingly transnational in nature. The battle against crimes such as terrorism, money laundering and trafficking in persons will be won only if states cooperate closely in apprehending and prosecuting such criminals."

NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF JUSTICE

http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/nij/international/global_crime.html

This page serves as a topical information resource for users who are interested in areas such as transnational organized crime, international cooperation, and cross national studies, prepared by NIJ. NIJ is the research, development, and evaluation agency of the U.S. Department of Justice and is dedicated to researching crime control and justice issues.

THE UNITED NATIONS CONVENTION AGAINST TRANSNATIONAL ORGANIZED CRIME AND ITS PROTOCOLS

http://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/crime_cicp_convention.html

The Convention represents a major step forward in the fight against transnational organized crime and signifies the recognition of UN Member States that this is a serious and growing problem that can only be solved through close international cooperation.

G8 RECOMMENDATIONS ON TRANSNATIONAL CRIME

<http://canada.justice.gc.ca/en/news/g8/doc1.html>

Review of the G8 Recommendations to Combat Transnational Organized Crime, adopted in Lyon in 1996. The review was conducted by the G8 Senior Experts Group on Transnational Organized Crime (the Lyon Group), and was coordinated by the Italian and Canadian Presidencies.

FBI'S ORGANIZED CRIME PAGE

<http://www.fbi.gov/hq/cid/orgcrime/ocshome.htm>

The FBI's fight against organized crime is unlike other criminal programs. Instead of focusing on these crimes as individual events, the FBI's Organized Crime Program targets the entire organization responsible for a variety of criminal activities.

2005 TRAFFICKING IN PERSONS REPORT

<http://www.state.gov/g/tip/rls/tiprpt/2005/>

The TIP Report exposes the many sides to trafficking. Countries, including the United States, which is dealing with its own trafficking problem, have been inspired to greater action against human trafficking as a result of this unique compendium.

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE STUDY OF ORGANIZED CRIME \(IASOC\)

<http://www.iasoc.net/>

The International Association for the Study of Organized Crime (IASOC) is a professional association of criminologists, researchers, working professionals, teachers, and students. IASOC works to promote greater understanding and research about organized crime in all of its manifestations.

TRANSNATIONAL CRIME AND CORRUPTION CENTER

<http://www.american.edu/traccc/>

The Transnational Crime and Corruption Center (TraCCC) is the first center in the United States devoted to teaching, research, training and formulating policy advice in transnational crime, corruption and terrorism.

THE OFFICE FOR VICTIMS OF CRIME \(OVC\)

<http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/ovc/intdir/welcome.html>

The Office for Victims of Crime (OVC) offers services and informational resources related to international crime victim issues. Learn more about assistance from OVC through the Terrorism and International Victims Unit.
